

The 5S Listening Conference and Informal Form

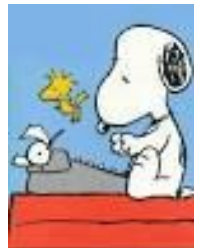

For the last few (8-10?) years I have been having a fall listening conference..

It is not an official conference, but a short (15 minute) informal meeting where we can get together in person and you can give me a better understanding of your child.

I will probably ask you questions that are similar to the ones below. The schedule for the listening conference will be posted on a platform called PTCfast by or before Friday, 9/7/18.

You will get an email giving you the sign-up directions.

If you can't come in for the listening conference, please fill in this informal form and send it back by email or in an envelope with your child. I will email you a copy of it too.

Thank you.,

Francesca
